GOALS

FUSE - Filmmaking | Understanding | Sharing | Experimenting is an international project aimed at the young members of the audiovisual industry. It provides a platform for networking in the field of production and co-production of feature films, with a particular focus on micro-budget projects by young directors and screenwriters.

The main goals are:

- to explore the potential of cooperation of young film industry professionals from Norway, France, Ukraine and Poland;
- to conduct a non-formal educational programme for young filmmakers showing how to promote and sell their works on the international film market;
- to increase knowledge about foreign film markets;
- to improve brand building skills;
- to exchange best practices developed in different countries;
- to develop the network among European film industries.

As a participant of FUSE, you will attend:

- workshops & lectures,
- debates & panel discussions,
- 1:1 consultations,
- a pitching session.

PITCHING SESSION

Filmmaking
Understanding
Sharing
Experimenting

Are you working on a script?

Do you need advice on how to further develop your project?

If so, then the pitching session is just for you!

Come to Radom to present your idea in front of well-respected representatives of the film industry.

The pitching session is not only an opportunity to get feedback from experienced film professionals, but also your potential future audience.

Although participation in the open pitching session is voluntary, we encourage you to submit your draft along with the application form and experience it all at first hand!
